Here's your outline to get started

Key findings about your topic
Review content of the book, articles, and books.

Notes Read and mark content.
Abstracts Review the abstracts of the book, articles, and books.
Keywords The author develops an initial list of keywords. Changes to this list are necessary, making them more comprehensive.
Methodology The choice of methods is critical to the quality of your report. It will be subject to critical appraisal by the reviewer.
Discussion Consider a number of perspectives for which the reviewer will be looking.
Conclusion Develop your own conclusions.
